

RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK

NORTH CAROLINA

Located at the heart of the Triangle's three major cities, the Research Triangle Park (RTP) is the largest, and one of the most successful, research parks in the United States. The Park's 300 companies employ more than 60,000 people, and range from IT giants like IBM and Cisco to more than 100 entrepreneurial ventures working to discover the world's next big ideas. Founded in 1959, RTP is building on its history and looking to the future, investing in sustainable mixed-use developments like Hub RTP and diverse small businesses like those at Boxyard RTP.

In April 2021, Apple announced more than $430 billion of investments in the US, including a new campus and engineering hub in RTP that will create more than 3,000 jobs.

Anchored by 3 tier-1 research universities, RTP is home to thousands of talented graduates each year. Its university researchers are among the leading experts on everything from cancer treatments to sustainable farming.

Boxyard, the first food, beverage & retail venue inside RTP, opened in 2021 as a central gathering space for coffee meetings, lunch breaks & after-work entertainment. Built from 40 upcycled shipping containers, Boxyard houses 15 diverse local businesses.
